USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT TO HOLD VISIT IN HOCKLEY COUNTY

LEVELLAND, TEXAS, October 20, 2004 – Representatives of USDA Rural Development will be at the Hockley County Courthouse, County Court Room, 802 Houston, Levelland, Texas, on Wednesday, November 10, 2004, from 1:00 until 3:00 p.m. A representative will assist individuals with applications and provide information about the various housing, community, and business and industry programs.

USDA Rural Development's housing programs offer loans and grants to very low, low, and moderate income persons in towns and cities meeting certain population requirements. Programs offered assist qualified persons to buy, build, repair or maintain a home.

USDA Rural Development's community programs enhance the quality of life for rural Texans by providing funds to governmental entities, nonprofit organizations and Indian Tribes to enlarge, improve or construct schools, libraries, medical clinics, assisted living centers, public buildings, community centers and fund new and improved water and wastewater facilities.

USDA Rural Development's business and cooperative programs provide the needed capital to expand economic opportunities and development in rural areas throughout Texas by working with banks and community lenders. There is no minimum loan size and the maximum loan size is up to $25 million.

USDA Rural Development is committed to help improve the quality of life for rural Texans. For more information regarding USDA Rural Development programs, please contact the Lubbock office at (806) 785-5644, Ext. 4.
